

THE SALT LAKE CITY DAILY HERALD.

VOL. XI.

SALT LAKE CITY, SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 21, 1880.

NO. 64.

L. Goldberg

CLEARANCE SALE

REGARDLESS OF COST!

In order to Refuse the Large Stock now on hand, I will Sell at

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

- 800 Fashionable Business and Dress Suits,
- 1500 Pairs Fine Cassimere Pants,
- 100 Dozen Fine Linen Shirts,
- 50 Dozen Genuine English Cheviot Shirts,
- 50 Dozen Genuine French Percake Shirts,
- 25 Dozen Alpaca Coats and Dusters,

And a Large Assortment of Desirable

HATS,

REGARDLESS OF COST

L. GOLDBERG,

je19

GEO. SAVILLE,
Homemade and Imported Boots and Shoes,
CUSTOM
BOOT AND SHOE MAKER
23 Second South Street, Opposite Postoffice.
Repairs done promptly and neatly. Patrons respectfully solicited.

SALT LAKE FOUNDRY AND MACHINE CO.
Works—One and a half blocks south of U. C. R. Depot.
Having a well-appointed Foundry, Machine and Boiler Shop, we are now prepared to furnish Steam Engines, Boilers, Stamp Mills, Mining and Hoisting Machinery, Smelting Furnaces, Water Jacket, Sigs, Pumps, etc. Saw and Grain Mills, Shafting and Pulleys, all kinds of rollers, Tanks and Plate Work made to order. Boilers and Steam Engines tested.
Copper Work for Breweries, Distilleries, etc., etc.

FOR SALE

- One 20-horse-power Stationary Engine.
- One 15 do. do. do.
- One 30 do. Hoisting Engine.
- One 17-inch Turbine Wheel.
- Two Steam Pumps for Boiler Feed.

P. O. BOX 1139.

JOHN W. LOWELL,
FISH WAGONS, BUGGIES AND PHAETONS,
MCCORMICK MACHINES,
The Celebrated J. I. Case Threshing Machines,
Enter Belknap or Apron, with Woodbury or Pitt Mounted or Down Powers.
The J. I. Case Chilled Plows, Steel Beam Plows and Harrows, Arrey Gang, Sulky and Walking Plows, Cultivators, Etc.

KELLY STEEL BARB FENCE WIRE
(Both Painted and Galvanized.)

—I KEEP NONE BUT—

FIRST-CLASS GOODS, AND GUARANTEE ALL I SELL.

JOHN W. LOWELL, | JOHN W. LOWELL, | JOHN W. LOWELL,
OGDEN. | SALT LAKE CITY. | TERMINUS U. & N. R. R.

WOOL. WOOL.

Parties having Wool to dispose of would do well to call on me as I am prepared to pay the

HIGHEST MARKET PRICE, IN CASH, FOR WOOL

In large or small quantities. Sacks and twine to the fleece furnished. First-class Sheep Shears kept in stock.

H. B. CLAWSON

Warehouse, corner South and East Temple Streets.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

BANKERS.

THE LONDON BANK, Main Street.
McCORMICK & CO., Main Street.
ZION'S SAVING BANK, Main Street.
DESERET NATIONAL BANK, Main Street.
WALKER BROS., Second South Street.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

GEO. DUNFORD, Main Street.
JAMES PAYNE, Main Street.
GEO. SAVILLE, Second South Street.

BREWERIES.

HENRY WAGNER, California Brewery.
KEYSER & MORITZ, Salt Lake City Brewery.

CANDIES AND CREAM.

GEO. ARBOGAST, Candy and Ice Cream.
CIGARS, FISH, NOCTACK, ETC.
ED. HARRIS, Tobacco, Cigars, Fishing Tackle, Etc., 1st East South Street.

CLOTHING.

GOLDSMITH & CO., Clothing, etc., Main Street.
L. GOLDBERG, Clothing, etc., Main Street.

COAL.

A. GOULD, Coal, Main Street.

CONTRACTORS.

SMITH & DOREMUS, Contractors for Locomotives, Grading, Bridging, Canals, Etc., Kimball Block.

DRY GOODS.

F. AUERBACH & BRO., Dry Goods, etc., Main Street.

GENERAL MERCHANDISE.

S. P. TEASDEL, General Merchandise, Wholesale and Retail, Main Street.
G. F. CULMER, General Merchandise, Wholesale and Retail, Main Street.
DAY & CO., General Merchandise, Wholesale and Retail, Main Street.
Z. C. M. L., General Merchandise, Wholesale and Retail, Main Street.

GRAIN AND SEEDS.

T. C. ARMSTRONG, Seeds, Grain, etc., First South Street.

GROCERIES, FRUIT, ETC.

FRED. G. LYNGBERG, Foreign and Domestic Fruits, 42 First South Street.
BOWRING BROS., Groceries, Fruit, etc., First South Street.
LUCAS & MEAKIN, Groceries, Fruit, etc., First South Street.

GUNS, PISTOLS, ETC.

J. HEUSER, Guns, Pistols, Tobacco, etc., Main Street.

HOTELS.

WHITE HOUSE, Second South Street.
CLIFT HOUSE, Main Street.
VALLEY HOUSE, South Temple Street.

IRON WORKS.

SALT LAKE FOUNDRY, Steam Engines, Boilers, etc., One and a half blocks south of U. C. R. Depot.
HAYNES & SONS, Boiler Makers, South Temple Street.

JEWELERS.

JOSLIN & PARK, Jewelry, Watches, etc., Main Street.
O. L. ELIASON, Jewelry, Watches, etc., Main Street.

MEAT MARKETS.

W. PETERSEN, Butcher, First South Street.
WHITE & SONS, Butchers, First South Street.

MERCHANT TAILORS.

JOHN TAYLOR & SON, Merchant Tailors, Commercial Street.
JOHN HAGMAN, Merchant Tailor, Second South Street.

MUSICAL MERCHANDISE.

GEO. CARELESS, Piano, Organ and Musical Merchandise, 124 First South Street.

PHYSICIANS.

H. J. RICHARDS, Physician and Surgeon, Main Street.

PLUMBERS.

DAVID JAMES, Plumbers, Tinner, etc., West Temple Street.
DAVID EVANS, Plumber and Gasfitter, Second South Street.

RESTAURANTS.

ARCADE RESTAURANT, Main Street.
STOVES AND HARDWARE.
GEO. M. SCOTT & CO., Stoves, Tin and Sheet Iron Work, Main Street.

WAGONS AND CARRIAGES.

R. WARNOCK, Wagons, Carriages, etc., First South Street.
H. B. CLAWSON, Wagons, etc., South Temple Street.
GEO. A. LOWE, Wagons, Carriages, etc., First East Street.

STUDEBAKER BROS.

Wagons, Carriages, etc., Main Street.

BAIN WAGON.

Wagons, Agricultural Implements, etc., First East Street.

JOHN W. LOWELL.

Wagons, Carriages, etc., First East Street.

UTAH CONTRACT COMPANY.

Office No. 1234 1/2, First South St., Salt Lake City, P. O. Box 431.
Understands and executes on the lowest terms and in the shortest time, either on or off the work of building, grading, bridges, telegraph lines and electric lines. Horse and other RAILWAYS; Locomotives and engines; water, canal, reservoir, and other works; excavating and grading; and all other work required for the construction of any of the above mentioned works, as well as the removal of earth, gravel, cement, stone, etc., etc.

TELEGRAPHIC.

CHINA AND JAPAN.

Latest News from the Orient.
San Francisco, 19.—Arrived, the steamer Oceanic from Hong Kong, via Yokohama.

Hong Kong, July 24.—No change in Russian prospects. Opinions continue equally divided as to the chances of war or peace. The Chinese ministry are evidently annoyed by the congregation of foreign diplomatic agents, charged with missions of more or less aggressive character, and only express discontent at the usually formidable a-priori of the delegation from the United States, which is now awaited with deep and increasing interest.

London, 20.—The steamer Herdier took $1,524,000 in specie for the United States.

Hamburg, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

Foreign Flashes.

London, 20.—The Daily News says Argentine and Buenos Ayres securities have recovered owing to a telegram that has been received stating that President Avellaneda's resignation had been withdrawn.

The minister of the Argentine Republic has a telegram from the minister of France, 15th inst., which says Congress has not accepted the resignation of President Avellaneda, but the expiration of the term of the presidency to which he was elected, the transmission of power will take place peacefully.

A correspondent says he hears on good authority that the British proposal to force the decision of the Berlin conference by armed measures, is cordially received by the powers. Germany is inclined to participate in such intervention.

Hamburg, 20.—The steamer Herdier took $1,524,000 in specie for the United States.

Hamburg, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

The situation was good at home and abroad.

Paris, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny, declared the recent elections had completed the foundation of the republic. He announced that government would introduce a bill to settle the condition of all religious associations. Of this union, he said, the government would take the benefit, but must never be permitted to place themselves above the law. He concluded by stating that the foreign political situation was never better, and France had emerged from the isolation to which events had condemned her, and resumed her place in general politics.

Foreign Flashes.

London, 20.—The Daily News says Argentine and Buenos Ayres securities have recovered owing to a telegram that has been received stating that President Avellaneda's resignation had been withdrawn.

The minister of the Argentine Republic has a telegram from the minister of France, 15th inst., which says Congress has not accepted the resignation of President Avellaneda, but the expiration of the term of the presidency to which he was elected, the transmission of power will take place peacefully.

A correspondent says he hears on good authority that the British proposal to force the decision of the Berlin conference by armed measures, is cordially received by the powers. Germany is inclined to participate in such intervention.

Hamburg, 20.—The steamer Herdier took $1,524,000 in specie for the United States.

Hamburg, 20.—DeFreycinet, president of the ministry, in a speech at Montigny